

Graduate Institute for Advanced Studies, SOKENDAI
[Space and Astronautical Science Program]
Doctoral Program 2025
Special Admissions for Applicants Residing Abroad
(Privately Financed International Students)

1. General Prospectus

The Graduate University for Advanced Studies, SOKENDAI was founded as a national university in Japan on October 1, 1988. The basic concept of SOKENDAI is to develop a new postgraduate education system in Japan. Its key features are as follows:

- 1) SOKENDAI offers both three-year and five-year doctoral programs which are for graduates with academic abilities equivalent to master's degree and bachelor's degree, respectively.
- 2) SOKENDAI consists of 20 programs under one institute operated by 20 Inter-University Research Institutes and Independent Administrative Institutions ("parent institutions").
- 3) Research and education are carried out in close cooperation with the parent institutions.
- 4) Broad and international visions are fostered by enhanced interchange between various institutions and universities in Japan and abroad.

The parent institutions provide Japanese and foreign scientists with opportunities to conduct advanced joint research in various scientific branches. They are equipped with extensive research facilities and function as centers for advanced studies. Presently, they cooperate to establish a world-class program for postgraduate education at SOKENDAI.

[Admission Policy]

<What SOKENDAI expects of our grad students>

The Graduate University for Advanced Studies, SOKENDAI, seeks students who have a strong interest in research, who constantly hone their abundant intellect and sensitivity with the aim of conducting research that will open up a new era, while taking a "bird's-eye view" of the entire field of study, and who have the will and enthusiasm to be active on the international stage.

<Basic policy for the selection of our grad students>

In selecting students for admission, SOKENDAI places importance on basic academic ability and logical thinking ability to actively promote research in the cutting-edge 20 research institutes affiliated with SOKENDAI. In order to properly judge such abilities, various selections will be made according to the respective fields of specialization.

2. Space and Astronautical Science Program Outline

Space and Astronautical Science Program offers students in-depth research guidance in space science, focusing on astrophysics and solar system sciences from space, as well as astronautical engineering. The latter includes research and development of cutting-edge space technologies aimed at practical space application. One of the unique features of this program is that students get involved in some of the world's most advanced large-scale projects. Through this involvement, they acquire not only extensive knowledge of space science, but also skills in planning and designing spacecraft development projects.

9. Selection Schedule and Method

We will carry out the selection in two steps. The first step is a paper screening (including a test of English). Only the applicants who pass the first step can proceed to the interview (the second step).

[Three-year doctoral program]

1) Paper screening

We examine contents of the transcripts from Master course, application forms, TOEFL, IELTS or TOEIC score, Master's thesis and its supplemental materials. English test scores may not be necessary for the applicants who are studying or graduated from the universities in the countries where English is a native language. If applicant is a prospective graduate of Master course and cannot submit Master's thesis at the time of applying, please submit it when it is ready, after having sent other application documents.

2) Interview

The interview will be held on a day in December 2024 for selected applicants. At the interview, 20 minutes are allocated for presentation while another 20 minutes are for question-and-answer session. Presentation is expected to focus on applicant's motivation for future research, as well as his or her plans and goals, while contents of Master's thesis or its equivalent need to be included also. Applicant is requested to send his/her presentation material prior to the interview. Question and answer session is conducted based on contents of the presentation and submitted documents.

[Five-year doctoral program]

1) Paper screening

We examine contents of the transcripts from the undergraduate school, application forms, and TOEFL, IELTS or TOEIC score. English test scores may not be necessary for the applicants who are studying or graduated from the universities in the countries where English is a native language and submit academic transcript from those universities.

2) Interview

The interview will be held on a day in December 2024 for selected applicants. At the interview, 10 minutes are allocated for presentation while another 10 minutes are for question-and-answer session. Presentation is expected to focus on applicant's motivation for future research, as well as his or her plans and goals. Applicant is requested to send his/her presentation material prior to the interview. Question and answer session is conducted based on contents of the presentation and submitted documents.

10. Announcement of Result

The result will be announced to all applicants in late February, 2025 via email.
